

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES SUMMARY

This summary explains your rights.

YOUR RIGHTS

When it comes to your health information, you have certain rights.

Get an electronic or paper copy of your medical record

- You can ask to see or get an electronic or paper copy of your medical record and other health information. Ask us how to do this.
- We will provide a copy or a summary of your health information, usually within 15 days of your request. We may charge a reasonable, cost-based fee.

Ask us to correct your medical record

- You can ask us to correct health information about you that you think is incorrect or incomplete. Ask us how to do this.
- We may say “no” to your request, but we’ll tell you why in writing within 60 days.

Request confidential communications

- You can ask us to contact you in a specific way (for example, home or office phone) or to send mail to a different address.
- We will say “yes” to all reasonable requests.

Ask us to limit what we use or share

- You can ask us not to use or share certain health information for treatment, payment, or our operations.
- We are not required to agree to your request, and we may say “no” if it would affect your care.
- If you pay for a service or health care item out-of-pocket in full, you can ask us not to share that information for the purpose of payment or our operations with your health insurer.
- We will say “yes” unless a law requires us to share that information.

Get a list of those with whom we’ve shared information

- You can ask for a list (accounting) of the times we shared your health information within the six years prior to the date you ask, including who we shared it with, and why.

Get a copy of this privacy notice

- You can ask for a paper copy of this notice at any time, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically. We will provide you with a paper copy promptly.

Choose someone to act for you

- If you have given someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information.
- We will take steps to reasonably confirm their authority to act on your behalf before taking any action.

You may file a complaint if you feel your rights are violated

- If you feel we have violated your rights, you can contact our Privacy Officer to file a complaint.
- You may also file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights by sending a letter to:

200 Independence Avenue S.W.
Washington, D.C. 20201

Calling 1 (877) 696-6775

or visiting

www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/complaints/

We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.

For certain health information, you can select how Omnicare shares that information. If you have a clear preference, please tell us what you want and we will follow your instructions.

You have the right to choose how information is shared with:

- Your family, close friends, or others involved in your care.

We never share your information without your written permission for:

- Marketing purposes, Sale of your information, and most sharing of psychotherapy notes.

You may opt out of future communications regarding:

- Fundraising efforts.

Omnicare may typically use or share your health information to:

Treat you

- We can use your health information to treat you and share it with other professionals who are treating you.

Operate our organization

- We can use and share your health information to run our practice, improve your care, and contact you when necessary.

Bill for your services

- We can use and share your health information to bill and get payment from health plans or other entities.

Help with public health and safety issues

- We can use and share your health information for: preventing disease, reporting suspected abuse, neglect, or domestic violence, or preventing or reducing a serious threat to anyone's health or safety.

Perform research

- We can use or share your health information to perform healthcare research.

Comply with the law

- We will share information about you if state or federal laws require it, including with the Department of Health and Human Services if it wants to see that we are complying with federal privacy law.

Work with a medical examiner or funeral director

- We can share health information with a coroner, medical examiner, or funeral director when an individual dies.

Address workers' compensation, law enforcement, and other government requests

- We can use or share health information about you: for workers' compensation claims, for law enforcement purposes or with a law enforcement official, with health oversight agencies for activities authorized by law, for special government functions such as military, national security, and presidential protective services.

Respond to lawsuits and legal actions

- We can share health information about you in response to a court or administrative order, or in response to a subpoena.

We are required by law to maintain the privacy and security of your protected health information

- We will let you know promptly if a breach occurs that potentially compromised the privacy or security of your information.
- We will not use or share your information other than as described here unless you tell us we can in writing. If you tell us we can, you may change your mind at any time. Let us know in writing if you change your mind.
- We must follow the duties and privacy practices described in this notice and give you a copy of it.
- We can change the terms of this notice. The new notice will be available upon request.

To receive a detailed copy of this notice, you may contact:

Omnicare Medical Group, Inc.

Privacy Office
2040 Camfield Avenue
Los Angeles, California 90040

Telephone: (323) 282-2303

Or contact the clinic where you received care.

Notice of Privacy Practice Summary Effective Date